“Maybe” List

In January nursery sources said these plants are a “Maybe” for this sale due to the whims of Mother Nature and an increased demand for native species. If you are interested in any of these species, order here. We may not know if available until just before the sale.

BARE ROOT SECTION

In addition to native plants, we are offering a bare root section consisting of fruit-bearing trees, shade trees, and ornamental trees and shrubs. These are not available as pre-order, but only during sale days. Though not native, they are compatible with growing in our area. We will not know which species will be available until the day before our Sale.
